Death Takes Mrs. McDonald

Funeral services were held April 20 for Mrs. Rose M. McDonald, well-known Plant No. 2 employee. Mrs. McDonald had been ill since the first of the year.

A light press operator in dept. 3, Mrs. McDonald had been in that dept. since she came to Motor Wheel in 1943.

Services were held at the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home with the Rev. Charles Mueller of Redeemer Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was in Deepdale Cemetery.

Pallbearers, all Plant No. 2 employees, were Earle King, Ray Coin, Raymond Dudley, Roy Cochran, John Butler and Elmer Halsey.

Any one of the modern jet fighters that guard our skies today has enough power to pull a 360-car freight train.

Mealtime is, as one over-worked mother put it, when the kids sit down to continue eating!

Mrs. Rose McDonald will be missed at Plant No. 2. Mrs. McDonald was well-known and respected by fellow employees. A collection taken up among her fellow workers was turned over to the Cancer Society by her husband, Holly McDonald.
