

Retired Farmer

In Memoriam

Life-Long Resident
Claud L. Strickland
Dies After Illness

Claud L. Strickland, 80, a retired rural mail carrier and life-long resident of this area, died at the home of his son, Gerald, at 514 Johnson Street, Charlotte, Sunday morning.

Mr. Strickland was born Sept. 9, 1876 in Chester township, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strickland. He lived at 622 E. Henry street and was a resident of this area for his entire life.

He married the former Hattie Seabolt on Christmas day, 1899. She passed away April 15, 1953. Mr. Strickland was a member of the Modern Woodmen.

He is survived by 2 sons; Gerald of Charlotte and Fay of Hillsdale; and a daughter, Mrs. James (Bethel) Wolcott of Battle Creek, a brother, Lorin, of Charlotte and a half-brother, Louis, of Lansing. He also leaves seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Friends Observe

REMALE, MRS. IDA ALETHA

1951 Elm st., Holt.

Funeral services for Mrs. Remale, who died Thursday, will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel. Rev. Vernon T. Smith of the Holt Presbyterian church will officiate and interment will be in Mt. Hope cemetery. Bearers are Hugh Claxton, Earl Dutcher, George Dutcher, Robert Dutcher, Robert Sweitzer and Charles Sweitzer.

REMALE, MRS. IDA ALETHA

1951 Elm st., Holt.

Mrs. Ida Aletha Remale, age 85 years, died Thursday at the residence. Surviving are 1 son, Herbert of Holt; 2 daughters, Mrs. Thelma Larson of Traverse City and Miss Lucille Remale of Kalkaska; 3 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are being made at Estes-Leadley funeral home and will be announced later.

Mrs. Ida Aletha Remale, 85, of 1951 Elm st., Holt, died Thursday at the residence. Surviving are one son, Herbert of Holt, and two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Larson of Traverse City and Miss Lucille Remale of Kalkaska. Funeral arrangements are being made at Estes-Leadley funeral home and will be announced later.

QUALITY

Three Motor Wheel employees, one of whom was retired, died in recent weeks. They were Jesse E. Tischer of the Automotive Division powerhouse; Carl F. "Chuck" Blankenburg of the Appliance Division plumbing department, and Fritz S. Young who worked in the Plant No. 2 canteen at the time of his retirement four years ago.

Mr. Tischer, 57, had worked at Motor Wheel since February 22,

Mr. Tischer

1927. He was well-known and respected by Plant No. 1 and Plant No. 2 employees. Services were held at the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home with the Elder Parry Mair of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints officiating. Burial was at Lakeside Cemetery, Lake Odessa.

Mr. Blankenburg, 61, had been employed at Motor Wheel since December 11, 1928. For some time Mr. Blankenburg was a supervisor in the Appliance Division plumbing department. Although his first name actually was Carl, Mr. Blankenburg was known to many employees as "Chuck." Services were held from the Estes-Leadley funeral home with the Rev. Julius Fischbach of the First Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in LAKE ODESSA — Stephen A. Aldrich, 80, retired farm implement salesman, died Thursday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. and Mrs. Lovell Dewey of Hickory Corners, where he had lived since last fall. Services will be held at 1:30 Monday in the Pickens funeral home. Burial in East cemetery, Hickory Corners.

MANC

58