Mrs. Ida Bennett, 78, Heart Attack Victim

Mr.s Ida (Hallie) Bennett, 78, 232 N. Bostwick Ave., died Monday morning, May 20, 1957, of a heart ailment at her residence t after a 10 day illness.

Guelph, Ontario, Canada, on Oct. e aaska. Burial will be in Excelsior 12, 1878, the daughter of James he waska. and Martha (King) Hall. She as tings, operated a farm implement posture furniture manufacturer in live to the last in the last Florida in 1921.

Mrs. Bennett was a resident of Charlotte for the past 28 years. She was a member of the First Congregational Church, the Pythian Sisters, Woman's Club, Sunshine Club, and was a graduate nurse of Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids. She was a public health nurse in that city until her

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sisters, Maude and Carolyn Hall of Toronto. Ontario. Funeral services will be held at the Burkhead Chapel Thursday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

HOWARD A. INMAN DIES AT HIS HOME

Howard A. Inman, 67, of 217 South William Street, a retired baker, died e at his home Friday, May 17, 1957. He was born in New York state, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Inman, and was married to Mrs. Mable Carlton who died in 1951. W. 4 7

He operated a bakery in Vermontville and later in Ionia. Later he was employed by the Battle Creek Bread Co., until his retirement in 1954.

He is survivied by two sons, Lane of Kalamazoo, and Howard, Jr., of Battle Creek; a step-son, Murl Carlton of Grand Ledge, two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Klenk, now with her husband at Mannheim, Germany, and Mrs. Ruth Olsen, of Paradise, Calif., and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Lehman Funeral Home at 1:30 p. m. Monday, May 20, 1957, with Rev. D. rai F. Price officiating. Interment Riverside Cemetery, Bellevue, Michigan.

Glenn Cotton, Kalkaska, Dies

Kalkaska - Services for Glenn Cotton, 75, former Kalkaska busi-nessman who died Wednesday tanere, will be held at 2 Sunday in Mrs. Bennett was born in adBerg-Schwartz funeral home, Kal> rfrom 1937 until 1948. He was a at member of Church of Christ of seKalkaska.

ad Besides his son, Mr. Cotton is survived by his wife, Nellie; one daughter, Mrs. Louise Groner of erKalkaska R1; one brother, Alvin of Lansing; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel m: King of Lansing and Miss Jessie of Tarverse City; seven stepchildren and nine grandchildren.

ruling was corconsider having hove to suspend e house did not of the bill and to amend was p. Sess., p. 171. was an amend-but of order ane to the bill for the reason le to a certain point of order upon earlier -H. J. 1933, r the point of order was raised on the motion or the ption. So the ruling may or may not be correct. The ls adopted the firs editors second parents when a boy of cents a week. He conthen becam bought the weekl Thus newspaper ec

Michigan's weekly

Weber, one of

lii

was i adopted. endments nd motion nephews, 4. 15.

ed to call d that a onvention except a ker ruled d that a nty of the roll call record it to make a member ound that iles of the nvention), uled out. this same was pull give the e United at it was the part ion from president of Michigan Press Association, ion, Mayor of Cheboygan, president of vived by his wife, Fannie, and two nep an illness where he l with his F and printing plants in Chicago, Ann Arbor, Charlotte, Hancock anager of the Lake Odessa Wave. He went to Chehovoran w EEKLY EDITOR AL WEBER D most widely known of Michigan's at Traverse City Hospital, after o Cheboygan, v He sold the O 10. He became a printer's apprentice on the Nashville Netinued with the Nashville weekly eight years. Later he in printing plants in Chicara in printing plants in Chicago, Ann Arbor, Charl manager of the Lake Odessa Wave. He went to Democrat and changed its name to Observer. e of the 1 I H. Weber, one publishers, died continued to

Chamber

of Harrisville,