Charlotte Man Killed

Mart D. Bailey, 82, Struck
By Car Saturday; Dies
In Lansing Hospital

(Special to The State Journal)

CHARLOTTE, Dec. 23—City police are investigating the accident which resulted in the death of Mart D. Bailey, 82, Saturday night.

Bailey was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Vera Anderson of 613 Irvington ave., police said, as he was attempting to cross Lawrence ave. at Oliver st. about 6 p. m.

Charlotte police officers said Bailey walked in front of Mrs. Anderson's vehicle. The driver was released pending further investigation.

Earl McDonald, Lansing judge who was acting coroner, said death was due to a skull fracture.

Mr. Bailey was removed to the Hayes-Green-Beach hospital for temporary treatment and then taken to a Lansing hospital where he died about 8:30 p. m.

He had lived all his life in the Charlotte area, residing at 319 Pleasant st.

Surviving are his widow, Mabelle; four sons, Kenneth, Hance and Keith of Charlotte, and Charles of Battle Creek; three daughters, Mrs. Blanch Andrews of Hastings; Mrs. Glenna Fineout of Morrice, and Mrs. Mae Bursley of Charlotte; nine grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday, 2 p. m., at the Pray funeral home. Rev. William Foote of the Church of the Nazarene will officiate. Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery, Vermontville.
