representative from Huron county, and spent his early years on the farm where he now resides, near Bad Axe, Michigan, August 22, 1879. His parents transformed this farm from a wilderness to fertile fields. He was married in 1906 and continued to live on the old homestead, which he has improved until it is modern in every respect. He has built up a herd of pure bred Holsteins, and in 1928 won for himself the title of master farmer. At the age of twenty-one, he was elected justice of the peace, and has always been active in public affairs, and connected with community projects. He has been secretary of the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co., presi-
