

George D. Hildinger
LAKE ODESSA, April 21—George D. Hildinger, 74, R. 3, Lake Odessa, died Sunday at Pennock hospital. Hastings. Mr. Hildinger lived his entire life on his farm in Sunfield township. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Anna Kussmaul of Livonia; and three brothers, Frank of Cleveland, Lawrence of Lansing, and Byron of Ann Arbor. The funeral will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Pickens funeral chapel, Lake Odessa. Burial will be in Lakeside cemetery.

Mrs. Jennie B. Woodworth
CHARLOTTE, April 21—Mrs. Jennie Woodworth, 63, Charlotte, died Friday night at the Hastings hospital following a long illness. She was born May 17, 1872, the daughter of James and Susanna Childs at Mt. City, Missouri. October 16, 1892 she was married to Samuel Shepard at Charlotte. She was a member of the Vermontville Congregational church.

George D. Hildinger
LAKE ODESSA — George D. Hildinger, 74, a retired farmer, Route 3, Lake Odessa, died Sunday at Pennock Hospital where he had been a patient seven weeks. Born Oct. 29, 1883, he was a son of George V. and Christiana (Smith) Hildinger. He spent his entire life on the farm in Eaton County, south of Woodbury. He had never married. Survivors are one sister, Mrs. Gottlieb (Anna) Kussmaul of Lavonia; three brothers, Frank of Cleveland, Ohio, Lawrence of Lansing and Byron of Ann Arbor; several nieces and nephews.

MRS. FRED WILSON DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Lena M. Wilson 76 passed away at the Hastings hospital Wednesday night following a long illness. She was born January 21, 1842 in Jackson the daughter of Dorr and Ella Bird Benn. In July 1916 she was married to Fred Wilson in Detroit.

She was a member of Auxiliary of Fraternal order of Eagles No. 612 in Jackson.

She and Mr. Wilson moved to Vermontville about six months ago. He is the only survivor.

The body was in state at the Otto funeral home here Thursday and was then taken to the Wetherby Co. funeral home in Jackson where services will be held on Saturday. Burial will be in Phedun Cemetery.

office, a chief assistant and a solicitor general, all of the attorney general and hold office at his pleasure general are selected from a list certified from the civil

MRS. HATTIE SHEPARD DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Services Held Monday

Funeral services were held Monday from the Otto funeral home for Mrs. Hattie Shepard, 85.

Mrs. Shepard died Friday night at the Hastings hospital following a long illness. She was born May 17, 1872, the daughter of James and Susanna Childs at Mt. City, Missouri. October 16, 1892 she was married to Samuel Shepard at Charlotte. She was a member of the Vermontville Congregational church.

Surviving is one son, John, two daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Mary) LaFleur and Frances Esther all of Vermontville; one sister, Frances Childs and one brother Fred Childs both of Charlotte. Three grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Donald Nichols pastor of the Congregational church officiated and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Linda Loucks
MULLIKEN, Aug. 27—Mrs. Linda Loucks, 84, former resident, died Tuesday in a Lowell convalescent home after a short illness. Surviving is one sister, Mrs. Jennie Gould of Lowell. Services will be held at 2 p. m. in the Barker funeral home. Burial will be in Meadowbrook cemetery.

with nistrator charged with the duty of nting the attorney general on the city.

CHARLOTTE — William W. Brugh, 74, died Tuesday at his Charlotte home. Services will be held at 2 Thursday at the Burkhead-Cheney funeral home, with burial in Perry cemetery.

MULLIKEN—Funeral services were held here recently for Claude Lumbert, 66, former resident of the Sunfield area who died recently in Charlotte. He had been a resident of Greenville the last 25 years. Burial was in East Sebawa cemetery.

BELDING—Services for Theo-

902