

Rev. M. H. Dawson Taken by Death

Funeral services will be held for Reverend Myron H. Dawson on Friday at 2 p.m. from the Calvary United Brethren church at Lake Odessa.

Rev. Dawson died of a heart attack Monday afternoon while shearing sheep at the Ivan Zuchnitt farm on Bell road south of Pleasant Valley.

Rev. Dawson lived on Hunter road, south of Sunfield, since his retirement last August. He was 66 years of age.

The Rev. Don H. Carriek of Sunfield will be officiating pastor. Interment will be made in Sunfield cemetery. The body will be at Mapes Funeral home in Sunfield until Friday noon.

Rev. Dawson was born Noy, 5, 1891 at Elmdale. A minister of the United Brethren Church in Christ since 1914, Rev. Dawson served churches at Woodbury, Climax, Allegan, Lake Odessa, Lansing, Sunfield, Kalamazoo, Fowlerville, Hastings and Freeport.

His last pastorate was at Freeport. For a number of years he was secretary of the United Brethren conference.

Survivors include the widow, Maida; a daughter, Mrs. Lorna Dunham of Lansing; one granddaughter; his father, H. H. Dawson of Lowell; two sisters, Mrs. Iva McIntyre and Mrs. Sabie Baker, both of Lowell; four brothers, Lester of Clarksville, Seymour and Charles of Lowell, and Rev. Lloyd W. of Lansing.

The University of Detroit is a Catholic institution. Jesuit Fathers, but imposes no religious observances on Catholic creed.

The university began its educational work on East J

Services Held Sat. for Chas. Edgel

Charles B. Edgel passed away Saturday afternoon at his home in Sebewa Corners at the age of 91 years. He had been ill for one year.

Mr. Edgel was born July 14, 1866 in Roxand township in Eaton county and had been a resident of the Sunfield and Mulliken area all of his life. He was a retired farmer.

Surviving are his widow, Rose; one daughter, Mrs. Mabel Barnes of Ionia; one step-daughter, Zora Johnson of Charlotte; three step-sons, Zene Ward of Portland, Graydon Ward of Inglewood, Cal., and Donald Ward of Long Beach, Cal., and one granddaughter.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from Mapes Funeral home in Sunfield at 2 o'clock. The Rev. D. H. Carriek was officiating minister. Interment was made in Meadowbrook cemetery at Mulliken.

Bearers were Homer Richardson, Henry Cramer, Ervin Debler, Edward Debler, John De Pugh and Floyd Potter.

new buildings having been ent includes: Shipherd hall

DOR EVERETT

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at Nashville for Dor Everett, 79, retired farmer, who died Saturday at his home in Nashville where he had lived for the last 16 years.

A former resident of Sunfield, Woodland, and a native of Castle-ton township, he is survived by his wife, the former Rosa Belle Hecker of Woodland township; two sons, Eston and Ivan of rural Vermontville; one sister, and grand children.

220

SISTER M.

Marygrove Heart of M 1846. In the original college was to Marygrove campus.

The college bachelor of training re a vocations

Facilities housed and of 700, and in the current nomics department for all indoor work, er work, i

The entrance for the year

JOSEPH B Olivet C in higher in the Olivet Ins force and the state rank.

The recruitment is t added dur (administrat building; Blair hall literary

C. H. C The b 1881, a title of to that expired,

The University of Detroit is a Catholic institution. Jesuit Fathers, but imposes no religious observances on Catholic creed.

The university began its educational work on East J