Fred A. Warner NASHVILLE - Fred A. Warner, 77, a retired farmer and former grocery clerk died at his home on South Main st. at 5 a.m. Wednesday, Mr. Warnen was born July 29, 1881 in Ver montville Township, a son of Charles and Frances (Fox) Warner. He was married in Vermontville in 1914 to Cora Hope and lived in Vermontville until 1927 when he moved to Nashville. He was a member of the North Maple Grove Evangelical United Brethren Church. Surviving are the wife Cora; one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Martens of Charlotte; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Funeral Services For Fred Warner On Saturday

Funeral services for Fred A arner, 77, who died at his home Nashville at 5 a.m. Wednesday, will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Fogt Funeral home. The Rev. Fred Kern will officiate and burial will be in the Woodlawn cemetery, Ver-

Mr. Warner was a retired farmer and grocery man.

He was born in Vermontville township on July 29, 1881, the son of Charles and Frances (Fox) Warner. He was married to Cora Hope in Vermontville in 1914 and they lived in that area until 1927 when they moved to Nashville. Mr. Warner was a member of the North Maple Grove E.U.B. church.

He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Martens, of Charlotte; four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Fred A. Warner

NASHVILLE, Jan. 28—Fred A. Warner, 77, of Nashville, retired farmer and grocer, died at his residence here Wednesday morning. A native of Vermontville, he moved to Nashville in 1927. Surviving are the widow. Cora: a daughter. Mrs. Gertrude Martens of Charlotte. four grandchildren and one great grandchild. Services are being arranged by the Vogt funeral home here.

Miss Mary Catherine Waggoner CHARLOTTE. Jan. 31—Miss Mary Catherine (Mattle) Waggoner. 86. died Friday in a Charlotte rest home after a long illness. A sister. Mrs. Frank Wood of Charlotte. survives. Funeral services "I be held Monday at Vermontville thodist church. The body will remain. Pray funeral home until services. uurial will be in Vermontville cemetery. I D. L. L.

Dr. Andrew Stanka Dies; Rites at G. Ledge Tuesday

(Special to The State Journal)

GRAND LEDGE, Dec. 15-Dr. Andrew G. Stanka, 79, who practiced medicine here 46 years until retiring in 1956, died Saturday afternoon at his home.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the Peters funeral home, Grand Ledge, with Dr. Harold Watson officiating. Masonic rites will be performed by Lodge 180, F. and A. M. Dr. Stanka was a life member of the Known for his big game hunt-ing expeditions, Dr. Stanka was named Grand Ledge sportsman of the year in 1954. He and his late wife, Agnes, made big game hunting trips together for 25 years. Their collection of tro-phies has been left to the schools.

Dr. Stanka was born in Bromberg, Germany, the youngest of eight children.

U. OF M. GRADUATE

His parents, John and Justina Stanka, first settled in Connecti-Then they moved to Atlantic Mine in the Lake Superior

His mother, who was a midwife, encouraged him to study medi-cine. He attended Ferris instilute and was graduated with the medical school class of 1909 at he University of Michigan.

He was one of the first physicians to receive a state certifiticing medicine.

Physicians' fees were 50 cents for an office call when he startfor country calls.

He recalled at the time of his retirement that Grand Ledge had no hospital when he began practice. When a Grand Ledge resident was seriously ill, the doctor loaded the patient on a boxcar headed for Lansing and the strike. hospitalization there.

Dr. Stanka never "bothered to count" the number of babies he fringe issues. had delivered, but it ran into large numbers. He was usually practice of medicine.

Only cousins survive. He also was active in the Ingham county, to avert a strike. state, and American medical societies and a life member of the Local 836, Amalgamated Associ Oddfellows.

DR. ANDREW G. STANKA

As a child, Dr. Stanka attended an ungraded country school. Strike Halts His mother who was a school. Flint Buses

FLINT, Dec. 15 (A)-Residents of Michigan's second largest city cate and when he came to Grand were without bus service for a Ledge he found 10 others practhird day today because of a

Members of the Transport ed to practice medicine. A house Workers of America, Local 170 call was $1, plus 25 cents a mile struck City Coach Lines Saturday after three months of negotiations failed to result in a new contract.

Dale Ricketts, a federal conciliator, said he would try to bring the two sides together "early this week" in an effort to end

A spokesman said the talks were stalemated over money and

GRAND RAPIDS, Dec. 15 (P)in the forefront of physicians Bus service rolled on today in trying new techniques and sci- Grand Rapids after union drivers entific discoveries to aid the and mechanics of City Coach Lines, Inc., accepted a last-ditch company offer of a new contract

Arnold Heany, president of