C. B. Paine has applied for a patent his "economical" furnace and has a entirely completed. In our candid dgement it is one of the best furnaces er built in the state. The method of nstruction is simple and the working t the entire aparatus is simply perfect. he castings were made at the Char- otte Foundry, under the supervision of he proprietor, H. J. Hart, which is a ufficient guarantee of superior work- nanship. Vermontville has at last something of which she can feel justly proud.
"Libby Prison" as rendered by George H. Maxwell of Detroit and "local" talent of Nashville, at the opera house, last Thursday evening, was exceedingly fine and was listened to by a very large and appreciative audience. Mr. Maxwell as "Ralph Evans" Walter Webster as "Hugh Bosworth" N. J. You'd scarce expect one of my ago,
To speak in the Hawk or on the stage;
And if my prices are too low,
On Hardware, Stoves and Furnaces too;
Don't view my stock with a critic's eye,
But take the bargains as they go by.

I want your trade;
I want it bad;
Will sell you goods,
The best to be had.
